Doing Good Through Goods

Red Shield Industries (RSI) is the social enterprise arm of The Salvation Army and we have come a long way since our beginnings in 1996. From a home collection service with only one truck in operation, RSI now has five family stores and eight donation in-kind booths across Singapore.

By re-using, recycling and restoring donations in-kind from the public and corporations, RSI generates income through our Family Stores to support our mission to provide holistic care to the community. To cater to the needs of online shoppers, we also have e-commerce stores to provide greater convenience for online shopping.

RSI also partners the Institute of Mental Health (IMH) for our work therapy programme. This rehabilitation project creates opportunities for IMH's clients to gain working experience at our RSI Pick n Choose Store, which helps ease them into the mainstream workforce.

We also strive to assist humanitarian needs in times of crisis and emergency, leveraging on our logistics network to deliver aid to crisis areas in the region quickly and efficiently.
