ENHANCING PARENT - CHILD BONDS

Mandy* joined Prison Support Services - Kids In Play in 2019 after her husband who was incarcerated found out about our Family Bonding programme. The programme allowed Mandy's children to interact with their father at the prison without physical barriers between them. Since then, her two children, aged 9 and 6, would always look forward to the special visits where they were able to cuddle and spend quality time with their father.

Unfortunately, we had to put a temporary stop to physical visits last year due to the pandemic. To continue supporting Mandy's family and all our clients, we initiated virtual Family Bonding programmes and various meaningful activities to replace the physical meetings so that our families can stay connected to their loved ones.

To tie in with Father's Day this year, we facilitated a special activity, which involved our children and their incarcerated parents writing letters or cards to each other. Mandy's children drew a lovely card for their father and were delighted when they received their father's letter and personalised heart-shaped origamis. Mandy was grateful to The Salvation Army for making all the arrangements which enabled her children to spend a meaningful Father's Day.

Prison Support Services - Kids In Play has helped Mandy's children maintain a close bond with their father through the virtual Family Bonding programmes, EMPOWER group sessions that are designed for children, and various bonding activities. Mandy has also benefited greatly from our Caregivers' Connect sessions through the online group discussions with fellow caregivers. She also gives back to the community by sharing her experiences and encouraging others to be resilient.

You too, can help families impacted by the incarceration of their loved ones to stay strong. Donate now and help us transform the lives of our beneficiaries for the better.

加强亲子关系

2019年，*蔓蒂在丈夫入狱之后就得知救世军的亲子凝聚项目，于是就加入了“亲子乐”——监狱支援服务计划。在这个计划下，蔓蒂的子女可以在监狱里而且是在毫无阻隔的情形下跟他们的父亲面对面交流。自此之后，蔓蒂的两个分别为九岁和六岁的孩子就一直十分期待探视父亲，因为他们能够跟爸爸拥抱，并且跟爸爸进行有意义的互动。

遗憾的是，由于疫情的缘故，救世军去年得暂时停止监狱的探视。为了继续支持蔓蒂一家和本军的其他受益者，我们推出了线上亲子凝聚项目以及其他有意义的活动来取代面对面的探视，好让一家人仍然能够跟他们心爱的人保持联系。

为了配合今年的父亲节，本军举办了一项特别的活动，让入狱的父母和他们的子女给彼此写信或写卡片。蔓蒂的孩子画了一张十分可爱的卡片给爸爸。当孩子们收到爸爸的信和日式手工折纸时，他们高兴极了。蔓蒂非常感激救世军安排这一切，这让她的孩子们度过了一个非常难忘的父亲节。

“亲子乐”——监狱支援服务通过线上亲子凝聚项目、专为儿童而设的EMPower小组活动以及其他增进感情的活动协助蔓蒂的孩子们跟他们的爸爸保持亲密的关系。蔓蒂也通过本军主办的照料者联谊会获益良多，她在线上跟其他照料者进行小组分享，获得了许多宝贵的育儿经验。此外，她也回馈社会，跟其他人分享自身的经验并鼓励他们保持坚韧，时时适应情况。

NETWORKING WITH MARYMOUNT SMC

Our Territorial Leaders, Colonels Rodney and Wendy Walters were delighted to host Ms Gan Siow Huang, Minister of State for Ministry of Education and Ministry of Manpower, and Member of Parliament for Marymount SMC, during her visit to our Territorial Headquarters on 23 June.

It was a fruitful time sharing with representatives from the Marymount Constituency about our work in Singapore. Ms Gan thanked The Salvation Army for our efforts in helping migrant workers and other vulnerable groups. She also shared about her team's ongoing outreach efforts to help residents under her ward. The evening came to a close with both parties affirming the importance of working together to help those in need.

COMMUNITY HARMONY CLUB HELPLINE

Sojourn initially launched a helpline in 2020 for a few groups of quarantined migrant workers who had recovered from Covid-19 and were waiting to return to their dormitories. When the heightened alert measures were implemented this year in May, we reactivated our helpline and have since continued to support migrant workers who are feeling stressed.

Being stuck in the dormitories except for work and essential activities has adversely affected the well-being of migrant workers. This Community Harmony Club Helpline provides vital support and counselling for the workers' mental health and gives them some respite from their dreary routine.

HBL? NO, IT'S HAVEN-BASED-LIVING!

The Haven organised a fun camp for our residents during their mid-year school break while ensuring the activities were conducted in adherence to safety split zones for the residents.

"Ah Boys to Men" was the theme for the younger boys where they learned about teamwork. The boys got to experience outdoor cooking, tent pitching and created a wall of memories, with written notes of affirmation of one another. "Survival" was the theme for the older boys and girls where they participated in games similar to those seen on the popular programme, "Running Man". They were also thrilled to sleep in hammocks and even held a mini campfire. The experiential activities helped them to bond and work out their differences.

We would like to specially thank our sponsor, T. Rowe Price, for making this memorable camp a reality for our residents!

- Make a donation at www.christmaskettling.sg from 1 November onwards.

Thank you for your kind support!

#FEET2FOSTER

Registration is now open for #Feet2Foster, our very first virtual race held in celebration of 65 years of fostering in Singapore! Organised by Gracehaven Fostering, this event hopes to raise awareness on fostering and funds will go towards supporting children under our foster care.

Participants can walk, run or cycle, at their own pace, and accumulate their completed distances anytime from 1 September to 30 November 2021. There will be 3 main race categories:

- Standard category of 65km
- Challenger category of 85 km and
- Special Foster Family category of 65km

Each registered participant will be entitled to an event t-shirt (while stocks last). In addition, participants who complete the Challenger category will receive the exclusive Finisher t-shirt. To show our support to all foster parents in Singapore, registration and event t-shirts will be free for registered foster parents and their families.

To register, please visit www.pinkapple.com.sg/VirtualRun/feet2foster.html
